

Written by Nathan Jones
Friday, 25 January 2019 21:52

The Carmarthen Town Sports Awards returned tonight (Friday 25th January) 2019 at the Carmarthen Quins Rugby Football Club Clubhouse in town. Fe wnaeth Gwobrau Chwaraeon Tref Caerfyrddin dychwelyd yn gynharach heno (Dydd Gwener 25ain Ionawr) 2019 yng Nghlwb Rygbi Cwins Caerfyrddin yn y dref.

The annual awards organised by the council once again recognised the sporting achievements and the success by athletes and coaches in the Carmarthen area over the past 12 months.

Success in the Town in 2018 for individuals & teams...

Carmarthen Town Council had invited the public over the past few months to nominate for this year's edition with an independent selection panel of sporting experts then deciding on the winners and runners up of each category.

The awards which are separate from the Carmarthenshire Sports Award, champion success within the town across all sporting fields.

All winners & runners up shortlisted, were all invited to attend the presentation evening in Carmarthen. Several sports were again in this year's sports awards, ranging from athletics, rugby, gymnastics and football to judo, squash, darts, karate, skiing, cycling and cricket.

All nominations were of very high standard which shows how strong success is here in Carmarthenshire over multiple sports.

Shortlisted Finalists across eleven categories head to the 2018 Carmarthen Town Sports Awards

Written by Nathan Jones

Friday, 25 January 2019 21:52

Shortlisted Finalists across eleven categories head to the 2018 Carmarthen Town Sports Awards

Written by Nathan Jones

Friday, 25 January 2019 21:52

Written by Nathan Jones
Friday, 25 January 2019 21:52

Athletics again being recognised on the track & cross country...

These awards have been a great success for Carmarthen & District Harriers AC over the years and this year was no different, as 23 nominations had been put in with 6 being shortlisted to attend on the evening. Congratulations everyone! / Llongyfarchiadau i bawb! Keep up the good work.

Categories & Awards were as follows at the ceremony:

First / Cyntaf

Shortlisted Finalists across eleven categories head to the 2018 Carmarthen Town Sports Awards

Written by Nathan Jones

Friday, 25 January 2019 21:52

Ben Thomas - Under 19 Youth Male

Alicia Samuel - Under 19 Youth Female

Second / Ail

Osian Roberts - Under 13 Junior Male

Liam Edwards - Under 16 Intermediate Male

Emily Shawyer - Under 16 Intermediate Female

Lauryn Davey - Under 19 Youth Female

The following Carmarthen Harriers members had also been nominated by club officers for the 2018 awards:

Cordelia Walker, Erin Morgan, Frank Morgan, Macsen Toogood, Iwan Thomas, Ifan Bowen, Beca Roberts, Nia Williams, Lili Church, Danielle Jones, Iwan Glynn, Jac Walters, Dafydd Jones, Tomos Rees, Iestyn Williams, Nathan Jones & Cross Country Junior Team

Ffwrnes Theatre in Llanelli, next up in a fortnight...

Shortlisted Finalists across eleven categories head to the 2018 Carmarthen Town Sports Awards

Written by Nathan Jones

Friday, 25 January 2019 21:52

Carmarthen Harriers Athletics Club would like to congratulate the town council for staging another successful presentation evening for all those in attendance, as well as congratulating the shortlisted athletes, teams and volunteers who received an award on Friday.

The county sports awards continues on Friday 8th February in the Ffwrnes Theatre in the heart of Llanelli Town Centre, where the Actif Carmarthenshire Sports Awards will return in 2019 following its great success last year. Thirty seven of the county's best are up for 13 awards to be announced on the evening. The awards are organised by Carmarthenshire County's Sport and Leisure team.

Full story and award winners/runners up will be covered here at www.carmarthenharriers.co.uk a few hours after the event concludes on 8/2/19.